

Android Studio Instructions for MacOS

1. Make sure you have downloaded Android Studio and open the project

2. Make sure to locally configure the “local.properties” file so it is set to your local SDK. For example, on MacOS, it is usually downloaded in “/Users/username/Library/sdk”

3. It is recommended that you delete all projects that has the name “Photos” before running this project